

From: Donna Wiesner Keene <[REDACTED]>
Sent: Thursday, June 11, 2015 2:59 PM
To: Perrine, Nicholas <NPerrine@nrahq.org>
Subject: FW: Grand National Waterfowl Hunt

Nick fyi, I will be at Embassy tomorrow and mention in passing, no details.
It couldn't hurt to interview for Sands, it isn't a lifetime commitment.

From: David A. Keene [mailto:[REDACTED]]
Sent: Thursday, June 11, 2015 9:42 AM
To: Donna Wiesner Keene
Subject: Fwd: Grand National Waterfowl Hunt
May want to mention to Ambassador

Sent from my iPhone

Begin forwarded message:

From: "Allan Cors" [REDACTED]
Date: June 11, 2015 at 8:53:00 AM EDT
To: "'David A Keene'" <[REDACTED]>
Subject: RE: Grand National Waterfowl Hunt

Dave:

I was at the hunt many years ago. A great event.

I concur with all of your ideas/suggestions and would welcome any opportunity engage the ambassador with the NRA.

Meet at HQ, to tour the museum, drive tanks (Russian, US, etc.) at the "tank farm", shoot machineguns at the farm, hunting, etc.

I look to you for guidance.

Thanks.

Allan

From: David A Keene [mailto:[REDACTED]]
Sent: Wednesday, June 10, 2015 6:24 PM
To: Allan/Darlene Cors jr.
Subject: Grand National Waterfowl Hunt
Allan,

Ordinarily the President gets an invitation to participate in the Grand National Waterfowl Hunt out of Cambridge, MD in the fall. There's a banquet, ceremony and hunts at some of the best farms on the shore. It's really a pretty good event. When I went even Donna got a couple of geese.

If you decide to go, I have a suggestion. I had lunch the other day with the Russian ambassador who it turns out is a hunter. He was complaining that while he has a summer place near Centerville on the shore, he built a blind, got a bunch of decoys, etc and failed to attract any ducks or geese while his neighbor across the water was limiting out. I think he'd really enjoy the Grand National and would be counted by the hosts along with you as one of their celebrity hunters. Moreover, I think you'd enjoy him.

He wants to come out to the HQ to visit the museum as he said when he was first posted here in the sixties he often visited the museum we had then in the district. He has a gun collection, etc.

Nick can arrange for the two of you (or three if Darlene goes) to go to the Grand National when the invite comes in. It would be fun and potentially useful.

Dave